“Orange Gall Wasp,” Kristin Tollefson, 5 1/4” x 2 1/2” x 3/4”, copper, plastic & antique Japanese faux pearl

“Covers and Shakers,” Darwin Nordin, Acrylic “18 X 18”

Kristin Tollefson’s work explores ambiguities and tensions occurring between natural and human worlds through themes of growth patterns, decay, handwork and manufactured processes. The work aims to be simultaneously scientific and poetic.

Darwin Nordin’s work is inspired by observations of the natural world. His representations are sometimes the hidden elements found in nature as well as the more obvious.
